To our Wonderful Volunteers,

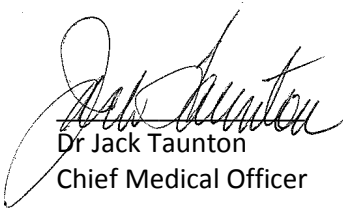

The Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games have now officially ended and it is time to reflect on what we have accomplished as a team. We have excelled in all aspects, thanks to your dedication and support.

The IOC and IPC were very impressed with our services at the Polyclinics and the Venues and have stated that this was the best medical services delivered at any Games. We have raised the bar. Thus could not have been accomplished without you, our volunteers. Thank you for your commitment, your dedication and your professionalism.

We are honoured to have worked with you and we can never thank you enough. We hope you have enjoyed your Olympic and Paralympic experience as much as we have enjoyed having you as part of the Medical Team, a team that delivered a Gold Medal Performance.

We did it and you are all a part of Games History!
